The Echo and Recorder join forces

The Haliburton County Echo, in keeping with its tradition as "The Voice of the Highlands," serving all of Haliburton County, has taken another step forward as the county newspaper.

John Zylstra, president of Algonquin Graphics, publisher of The Haliburton County Echo and The Minden Recorder, announced today that as of this week The Echo and Recorder have merged as one publication.

Mr. Zylstra said that the move was made in order to best serve the advertisers and subscribers of both publications. He pointed out that The Echo, with a circulation of over 4,200, coupled with the 2,583 of The Minden Recorder, would now have the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the electoral riding of Victoria-Haliburton.

Mr. Zylstra noted that the total circulation of the two publications, at 6,700 plus, would give the advertisers the opportunity of a wider readership.

He explained that the circulation basically covers the entire Haliburton County area and the northern part of Victoria County. He noted that there is also a high number of subscribers from the golden horseshoe (Toronto area) who subscribe to the newspaper. Mr. Zylstra noted that these people are generally summer residents of Haliburton County and have both a readership and shopping interest in the area.

Subscribers to The Recorder will now receive The Echo for the duration of their subscriptions and in the case of people with subscriptions to both newspapers, the duration of the two will be added together. For example, if you have seven months remaining on your Echo subscription, and five months on your Recorder subscription, you will receive The Echo for 12 months.

Mr. Zylstra noted that readers of The Recorder will find that they will receive the same news coverage as before plus more on the pages of the new Haliburton County Echo and Minden Recorder.

5-year-old dead after accident

A five-year-old Minden youngster is dead as the result of an accident on Highway 121 south, one and a half miles from Highway 35.

The accident took place August 12 at 10:55 a.m. Kent D. Stromberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stromberg, of Minden, was killed when struck by a car driven by James E. Howe, 55, of Scarborough.

The Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police report that the youngster was standing on the east shoulder of Highway 121 watching a truck being repaired. The report went on to note that after the repairs were made the vehicle started northbound, the youngster saw his sister on the other side of the road and ran from behind the truck and into the path of the southbound Howe vehicle. Howe's vehicle came to rest in the west ditch after attempting evasive action, the police report points out.

No charges have been laid in connection with the accident and there was no postmortem. No decision has been made yet whether there will be an inquest or not.

Coroner is Dr. R.K. Hollows of Lindsay.

Juveniles are charged after rock throwing

Six juveniles were each charged with four counts of mischief as the result of an incident at Brownvale Camp on the Barry's Line in West Guilford.

All of the juveniles are from the Thunder Bay area.

Police busy during week

Members of the Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police investigated 19 motor vehicle collisions during the week of August 8 to 15.

During that time 123 general occurrences were investigated.

There were 10 break-ins investigated, 16 persons charged with boating violations, five compassionate messages delivered, three persons charged with liquor violations and five persons charged with impaired driving.

The Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police report that the six were found to be leaving the camp by members of the staff. Stones were thrown by the juveniles resulting in the windshield of a car being broken and the windshield of a truck broken along with some body damage to that vehicle. Total damage to the car was $150 and damage to the truck was estimated at $200.

When the police arrived more stones were thrown, resulting in a broken windshield to one cruiser and dents to the roof of another.

The owner of the car damaged was John Younger of R.R. 1, Victoria Harbour and the truck was leased by Brownvale.

The police report that the accused appeared in family court in Peterborough. Three returned to Brownvale Camp and three were taken to a Belleville juvenile home.

Ewart MacInnes of Bolsover had a chance to chat with Joe Clark, leader of the opposition, MP Bill Scott and Maureen McTeer, Mr. Clark's wife. Mr. Clark was at the Haliburton County Fair held in Minden over the weekend.

Aug. 8 to 15

19 collisions investigated by police during week

The Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police investigated 19 motor vehicle accidents during the week of August 8 to 15.

A single car accident on County Road 2 in Lutterworth Township resulted in minor injuries for the driver and $1,200 damage to the vehicle.

The OPP report that the vehicle was eastbound when it went out of control, struck a rock cut in the north ditch and rolled over.

Peter A. Stribling, the driver of the vehicle, was charged with operating an unsafe vehicle, impaired driving, failing to provide a breath sample and careless driving.

The accident took place August 13 at 5:50 p.m. A two vehicle accident, on Highway 503 east of Kinmount, resulted in a total of $500 damage.

The accident took place at 4:30 p.m., August 12.

The OPP report that a truck driven by Gary S. Hawley, 29, of Bancroft, and a car driven by Alfred Madil, 39, of Haliburton, received $250 each in a collision.

The report states that the vehicles collided when they were passing a construction site. The vehicles had slowed for a flag woman and then collided when stopping for the next flag man.

Hawley has been charged with following too close.

Pay for metric conversion

The municipality of Anson, Hindon and Minden has petitioned the Ministry of Transportation and Communications to pay 100 per cent of the costs of metric conversion of traffic signs.

The council agreed to the petition in a resolution passed at the council meeting last week.

Copies of the resolution have been sent to the County of Haliburton and all municipalities in the county.

An accident at Onandaga Camp Road, August 11, at 11:15 p.m., resulted in $900 damage to a car driven by Lynne M. Searle, 25, of R.R. 1, Ashburn.

She received minimal injuries in the accident. The OPP report that the vehicle was southbound when it failed to round a curve and entered the west ditch striking a rock and turning onto its side.

She has been charged with failing to wear a seatbelt assembly and failing to report a collision forthwith.

There was $3,000 damage to a truck driven by Ronald G. Stewart, 37, of Aziloa, when it was involved in an accident on Highway 121 at the junction of Highway 648, August 11.

The Minden detachment of the OPP report that the truck was northbound in a fog when it travelled through the intersection into the north ditch striking some rocks.

Stewart, who received minimal injuries in the crash, was charged with failing to ensure that passengers were wearing seatbelts.

No indication of change in level of local lakes

Fast dropping water levels in Haliburton area lakes are a major concern to many residents and cottagers but if a letter from Bill Scott, MP, Victoria-Haliburton, is any indication there is very little that can be done.

The letter to Dysart et al council, from Mr. Scott, stated "The question of draw downs from reservoir lakes in Haliburton County to supply water needs on the Trent system is a most complex one and something which has evolved over many years. I certainly share the concerns of individuals in our area who are affected by water level fluctuations throughout the course of each and every summer season. Thus, you can rest assured of my interest in this matter."

Dysart council agreed to support a resolution from Galway-Cavendish council concerning water in reservoir lakes.

The resolution which was sent to the Department of Indian and Northern Development read "That the Department of Indian and Northern Affairs, Trent-Severn Waterway branch, discontinue drawing down water from the reservoir lake areas to satisfy an early season need by the Trent System and that both the Trent System and the reservoir lakes share equally the impact of water levels in years where the rainfall creates a water shortage in both systems, and that a study be undertaken to determine the feasibility of creating reservoir areas, extenuous to existing populated lakes that would be for the purpose of storing water to satisfy the Trent System needs and no development be allowed around same. A further consideration would be to more closely manage the existing system by reducing the size of the stops in the dams from 12 inches to six inches."

In a letter to the department it is pointed out "We recognize that segments of the above resolution are of a long term nature, but would ask that you advise us of your offices' strategy for the current year."

In the letter to the department it is noted that a lack of rainfall has contributed to the problem but suggested that the whole Trent System should be affected, not just the reservoir lakes.

Dysart Deputy Reeve, Harold Bannon, said that something has to be done.

Reeve, Murray Fearrey, pointed out that he thought there was an agreement with the Trent people to wait until after Labor Day to start draining the water.

Councillor, Gary McKnight said that the low water is a problem in all of the lakes.

Council agreed to send a letter of its own to the Department of Transport about the matter.

Break-in at Echo's of Yesterday

The Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police is investigating a break, enter and theft which took place at Echo's of Yesterday on Highland Street, Haliburton.

The break-in took place sometime over last weekend and one of the items taken was valued at $300 and $25 damage to the window.

The shop is operated by Howard Clyde.

Ski club makes proposal for slalom course

The King Club has come up with another proposal to locate their slalom course on Grass Lake near West Guilford.

Judy Bush told Dysart council that the club has surveyed the people on the south shore of the lake and have not had any objections. She said the survey was taken at the advice of the Ombudsman's office and the Ministry of Natural Resources.

Reeve, Murray Fearrey said that the council would reconsider the matter but there are concerns about the size of the lake. He pointed out that it would mean a few people using a large area of the lake.

The council was told that the course is 850 feet long, with a 100 foot turning area, 400 feet from shore. The boats would reach speeds of 35 to 36 miles per hour.

Mrs. Bush said that the club was told it wouldn't be necessary to survey the people on the north shore but Reeve Fearrey said that on a small lake a course like that would affect the entire body of water.

Council passed a resolution asking the Ministry of Natural Resources to give an opinion on King Ski Club on Grass Lake, explain the affects on fish life, the interruption of existing canoe routes and the erosion of shoreline.

Council wants ward in Harcourt area

Dysart et al council is looking for a way to get better representation on that body from the Harcourt area of the municipality.

The council passed a resolution Monday to increase the size of the council from five to seven members but it will need approval from provincial government bodies.

The change would do nothing to Haliburton Village but would change the boundaries on other wards.

There is some question as to whether there would be the 500 resident voters in Harcourt to make it a ward.

In presenting the resolution Deputy Reeve, Harold Bannon said that it would give Harcourt, West Guilford and Eagle Lake better chances for representation.

Open house on zoning by-law was very successful

An open house to discuss the municipality of Dysart et al's zoning bylaw was a success according to Derrell Stamp, the municipal planner. Mr. Stamp said that it was a good turnout for the session which last from 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. at the Legion Hall.

He noted that there were a fair number of objections registered and those objecting were asked to submit a letter as well.

He pointed out that most people with objections had them in the area of the mapping of the bylaw and not in policy.

Also in attendance at the open house, to discuss the bylaw with the residents of the area, were Dave Barber of the Municipal Planning Consultants and Lloyd Conebeare, chairman of the planning committee for the municipality.

Howard Roberts, Dysart Fire Chief, presents Joe Iles, Arena Fund Chairman, with a cheque for $500. The arena fund is nearing its goal of $25,000 hitting over $18,000 during the past week.

It's 24 kilometres from Haliburton to Minden according to this sign on Highway 121. The signs in the area have been changed recently to read in kilometres.

Canada is in the process of changing its measurements to metric.

Echo editorials

Newspaper celebrates 95th anniversary

One of Haliburton County's senior citizens is celebrating its 95th birthday today. The Haliburton County Echo is truly a senior citizen in the county and for over 95 years one of the most respected.

As a senior citizen The Echo also has the ability to change with the times, to adjust when adjustment is needed, and to stand by its principals at all times.

Now The Echo has made another adjustment with the times. One that will be of benefit to the readers and advertisers of the newspaper. The Haliburton County Echo, for 95 years the county newspaper in Haliburton, has amalgamated with The Minden Recorder.

The newspaper, in the amalgamation, will take on a slightly new name as well, The Haliburton County Echo and Minden Recorder. This is a name that many of the other senior citizens in Haliburton County will tell you is similar to what the newspaper was once called, The Minden Echo and Haliburton Recorder.

The Haliburton County Echo and Minden Recorder, with a press run this week of 7,000, will serve its readers in the best way it can by providing as much news as possible, and its advertisers by circulation to as many people as possible.

The old Minden Echo and Haliburton Recorder clearly established itself as the local, county newspaper in Haliburton County 95 years ago. Today it is continuing with that tradition as the Haliburton County Echo and Minden Recorder, "The voice of the Highlands."

1951 Echo front page dedication editorial

Editor's Note: This editorial was published on the front page of the Haliburton County Echo, November 8, 1951, marking the first publication under the management of Walter Noice, Creighton Feir and Berkeley Feir.

DEDICATION OF A NEWSPAPER

Realizing the need of a live newspaper devoted to promoting the interests and well being of Haliburton County, we the undersigned have purchased the Minden Echo and Haliburton Recorder which has been owned by Mrs. Loyola C. Webster.

In selecting the name for our new weekly we have taken into consideration the fact that the name Echo has been synonymous with Haliburton County since 1870. We have combined the two thus the Haliburton County Echo.

We intend to devote all our time and talents to produce a real honest to goodness clean and INDEPENDANT newspaper published in the County, for the County, by residents of the County.

It will ever be our aim to promote goodwill among citizens throughout this area thus eliminating much of the jealousy and bitterness that exists here and there retarding the growth of a more progressive and prosperous County.

To this end we dedicate this newspaper.

WALTER NOICE - CREIGHTON FEIR - BERKELEY FEIR

Understaffed?

Is the Minden detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police understaffed or is it just a matter of scheduling that no on-duty police officers were in Haliburton for the Rotary Carnival parade?

We suggest that all evidence points to the understaffing or lack of enough bodies, or whatever you want to call it. Certainly scheduling wouldn't be a problem considering the detachment had 12 days notice.

In Minden, with only a few hours notice, and a similar number of occurrences at the same time, the OPP were able to send two men to the Minden Rotary Carnival parade.

It is quite apparent that the two officers who attended the Minden parade were called in early for that specific reason. We wonder if that wouldn't have been possible for the Haliburton parade as well?

Certainly the OPP want to give Minden and Haliburton equal coverage. We heard that many times a few months back when police protection in Haliburton was an issue.

We even heard that a re-scheduling program was taking place back then to make the protection better in all areas of the county. Well, we are having another re-scheduling in Haliburton and this time we are told it will be for the better again.

A few members of Dysart council weren't far off when they asked for a new police detachment for Haliburton Village and we would think that after five or six more schedule changes a new detachment will have a better chance at reality. At least the council will have a pretty strong case.

The Haliburton County Echo is now 95 years old and this month it's our birthday. This weeks Pic of the Past goes away back beyond 95 years. It shows the Drag River at the east end of Haliburton. It was taken in the 1800's. Our thanks to Doreen Cowen of Haliburton for submitting the photo.

Feir Play

by Creighton Feir

The Haliburton Rotary Club Carnival has been over now for two weeks but we just realized that we missed a couple of items that should have been published. Air Haliburton added a great deal to the event when some of their aircraft kept flying over the parade route when the parade was on and this was certainly an added feature. We might also add that we were certainly discouraged to see the local resorts so poorly represented in the parade. When the first Rotary parade came down the street in 1944, the local resorts were out in full force but of late they have been poorly represented. It all boils down to the fact that the resort business is not what it used to be. We do have to commend Wig-A-Mog and Locarno who are usually represented in the parade.

From the latest reports that we have received, the Drop-in Centre for Senior Citizens will not be a part of the new Haliburton Curling Arena. It appears that the people behind this project just can't seem to come up with their share of the money to go ahead. For the present time the senior citizens are going to meet in the basement of the Orange Hall. This will be a one day a week shot, possibly every Thursday. We wonder why the Drop-in Centre couldn't be operated in the arena auditorium. It would have to cease operation for the two summer months while the Haliburton Hockey Haven is in session, but this shouldn't pose any problem. We must admit that the steps leading up to the auditorium could be a problem but most of the senior citizens using this facility are capable of walking up the steps.

Nick Beverly, a defenceman for the Minnesota North Stars of the National Hockey League, was the guest speaker when the Rotary Club of Haliburton held their weekly meeting at the United Church last Thursday night. Nick, who is an instructor at the Haliburton Hockey Haven during the summer season, is married and has a year round home on Soyers Lake. His talk was a most interesting one and instead of telling of the hard side of a pro hockey players life, he spoke mainly on the lighter side of the hockey business. Some of his humorous stories on things that have happened to him brought many a laugh from the members present. He was introduced by Scott LaRue and thanked by Art Dawson.

According to the law, as long as a person has a life jacket in his boat that is all that is necessary. In our opinion this law should be changed to read that all persons in boats must have their life jackets on. We would have less drowning accidents if this was the law. As one person told us the other day, people wearing life jackets don't drown if the boat overturns.

Just how long are we going to have to wait for the Ontario Hydro to make some changes re transformers or wiring on two or three streets in the Village of Haliburton. The problem is that the street lights are off more than they are on, on certain parts of Park Street and on Pine Street. We have been harping on this issue for the past few months and nothing seems to be happening. We have been talking to some of the members of council and they have told us that they are going to look into the matter and see if at last we can't get some action on this problem.

It seems to us that in most cases, in local councils in the county, most of the workload and problems are being brought to the attention of the various reeves. Let's not forget that each council has a deputy reeve and three councillors. If you have a problem see the deputy reeve or one of the councillors. Don't leave all the work in the hands of the reeves.

We are very disappointed in the fact that each week various issues are arising throughout Haliburton County. Some of these issues involve you as a citizen. Most of these items appear in our newspaper. At different times we even get our opinions on these matters. Sometimes we are right and other times we are wrong. If you agree or disagree, or have an opinion of your own, why not drop us a letter to the editor. We are receiving very few letters on local issues and we would like to hear from you.

During the past week several workers and trucks have been on hand cleaning up the brush and debris on the site of the new proposed park for Haliburton which will be situated on Head Lake and will join the present Rotary Park and beach. We understand that some of the fill from the second phase of the sanitary sewer system will be used for the park.

Some local citizens, as well as some of the visitors to Haliburton, have been commenting on the poor conditions of some of the sidewalks in the village. In talking to some of the members of the local council they inform us that this work will be done but there is no use in tearing these sidewalks up until the sewer project is completed. When this is done several improvements in the village will be made.

It would seem that if you bring in the good movies you can fill a theatre. Usually, in past years, on the night of Haliburton Rotary Club parade, business at the Molou Theatre is poor. This wasn't the case this year when the theatre was practically packed for the two shows of the movie "Rocky".

This occasion provides us all with an opportunity to pause and appreciate the freedom of the press which we enjoy and the service which our newspapers provide in keeping us informed.

I congratulate the publisher, Mr. John Zylstra, and his faithful staff, and wish them many years of good health, happiness and good fortune.

I would also like to take this opportunity to express appreciation for the very great service rendered in the past by Mr. Berkeley Feir and Mr. Creighton Feir.

John Eakins,
MPP Victoria-Haliburton.

Dear Sir:

Congratulations to the Haliburton County Echo on the 95th year of operation as a newspaper in our county and community.

Nearly as old as the oldest resident of our county, this newspaper has survived the test of time and on behalf of the Dysart municipal council may we congratulate you on past performance and wish you every success in the future.

During my time as a resident of this municipality we have looked forward each Wednesday to seeing the local paper. It was and is a means of learning the news throughout the county, as well as projecting the opinions of the staff and the position of The Echo relative to happenings that affect us here locally. These have been an effective means of communications.

It is of interest to watch the community grow, as The Echo has grown. We look forward to continued growth and wish the Haliburton County Echo every success.

Murray Fearrey,
Reeve, Dysart et al.

Dear Editor:
I would like to commend you on the fine eulogy written by Creighton Feir on the passing of one of Haliburton's finest men.

Elmars Sebrins, B.Sc.Phm.

To the Editor:

RE: Zoning By-Law #77-32
We object to the Zoning by-law # 77-32 for the simple reason we are taxpayers and free Canadian's as yet.

We feel that we should be able to use our buildings and property in a free manner with out Siberian style of Government, we don't need in Canada.

P.S. We also don't agree on the mailing charge of 44c per copy out of the taxpayers money. God only knows the cost per copy of Zoning By-law Books.

Lottery addicts take heart. Here is a new lottery plan where you are guaranteed to win at least $250 once a year, suggests the editor of The Renfrew Mercury.

However, it involves stopping spending money on any other lotteries.

The day before each of the Wintario, Provincial, or Loto Canada draws, just deposit the value of two tickets in a special bank account.

With 26 Wintario, 12 Provincial and four Loto Canada draws, the total after a year will be $252. And to make the winnings even bigger, you will be paid interest on the money.

Of course, there isn't any chance of winning a million dollars, but then the chances of winning a million on the lotteries is so small as to be worthless anyway.

The truth about the lotteries is that from 40 to 50 per cent of the money goes into prizes. That means that of your $252 entered, only from $100 to $126 is paid back in prizes.

So that means that after levelling out the odds, you could make twice as much money by putting the ticket-money into the bank.

And then at Christmas or whatever time you decide to take the cash out, you will have a nice total of winnings on hand instead of cursing that you didn't win.

Editor's Notebook

by Jim Badgley

If we could only see through the eyes of The Haliburton County Echo over its 95 years. Wouldn't it be great if we could somehow turn the pages of the almost 5,000 issues of the paper that have been published over the years?

No better history book of Haliburton County has ever been written than the one that could be found on those pages. No greater insight into the area's past could be found anywhere.

Through the pages of The Echo, during its 95 years, we would find the history of many generations of families of the area. We would find when and why the other people have moved here.

You would see when you were born, for those of you who were fortunate enough to have lived your entire life in Haliburton, you would be able to once again trace the good times and the bad times you had in the area. The many great events have been recorded as well as the events that sometimes spelled bad times.

In the pages of The Echo we would see the business changes in the area. Haliburton County changing from a logging economy to what many people will remember as a new found tourist area.

In those 5,000 papers published there were millions of words about Haliburton County, its people and its lifestyle. Over the next 5,000 issues there will be many more words written about Haliburton County and its lifestyle.

The Echo, with its many stories about the people and life in Haliburton County, is much more than just a business. It is Haliburton and its lifestyle.

I, for one, am happy to be part of The Echo, for its 95th birthday, and I am happy to be part of Haliburton.

News from Extendicare

The efforts we expended early in the spring up to now we can appreciate in the marvelous display of an infinite variety of flowers in the beds and the boxes on the patio. To name a few - large and small zinnias, large and small marigolds, petunias of every color, and last but not least geraniums that are showing more and more color daily. Fellow residents you are to be congratulated!

Tuesday the kitchen and dining room staff gave us the pleasant surprise of serving our noon meal on the lawn and patio among our blooms. It means much more work and organizing to do this, so we owe them our thanks. On the other hand they seem to enjoy doing it.

The staff have advised us that they are having a party for us and the public sometime in September in celebration of "Settlers' day." It gives us some speculation to try to rationalize the thinking of those hardy folk in the "old" country to gather up all their belongings and venture forth to live in a new land. Were they victims of the "hard sell" or were they true pioneers? Whether or not, it resulted in the settling of this land with a stock on which was built the splendid community in which we now live.

***

Tuesday's bingo is quite an attraction for most of us. Someone is always winning but not Jake Gill who excels in calling. We at least owe him our thanks. We had this idea a few issues back when we threatened to put him to work.

***

Wednesday's movies and popcorn is always worthy of note. This week it was the Queen Charlotte Islands where laziness and tranquility is featured. Next movie was of Niagara Falls where honeymooners galore, and the falls is stupendous. There were a great variety of sideshows as also was the case in the third movie of Ontario Place, which in itself is very unique in entertainment. Movies like these are very informative to many of us who have not been able to visit these places.

***

Thursday has become baking day here and among the cooks assembled for this pastime were Mrs. Hazel Parish, Mrs. Mary Currah, Mrs. Alma Clement, and Mrs. Hazel Welch. The scouting for other participants missed out on some who were prepared to join in. The chief item made was a goodly batch of oatmeal cookies containing besides coconut, white and brown sugar and maraschino cherries, and moreover they were delicious.

***

Friday morning is our devotional period. This time Rev. Trevor Denny, pastor of St. Georges Anglican Church, was our spiritual leader. His theme dwelt on the many promises Christ makes to us in return for which we owe Him much. Music was by Miss Sheila Elston, our Administrator. Our thanks go to her for doing this.

***

Haliburton County is to be congratulated in having no major forest fire in 1977 at least so far. Much of this good fortune may be because the innumerable tourists and cottage owners keep their properties so well groomed that there is no fuel available to burn even if assaulted by a bolt of lightning. There is still too much slash in county forests showing that there is much work for the idle hand of the unemployed to do. We realize that it would require much energy to groom many forests, but it also requires terrific energy to quench fires once they start. In thus grooming the forests much more fodder would be provided to the creatures of the wild.

***

We are! Why? A mathematician could figuratively place all the people of planet Earth in a packing case having the dimensions of a cubic mile. If one of our astronomers transposed this case to a black hole in the universe, the force of gravity therein would naturally and uniformly reduce it to the dimensions of a cubic centimetre, without changing its weight. There are some questions that are never answered but they all have a correct answer.

Soon the children will be back to school and we will settle into our fall and winter routine. We will not know the form that will take until we come to it. However, we will have some games and parties and routine chores to fill in the time.

William Dugan, of Minden, received a plaque from the Minden Agricultural Society for his service to the Haliburton County Fair. Mr. Dugan was presented the plaque by Victoria-Haliburton MPP John Eakins.

From the Chamber

BY BOB STINSON

Everybody is talking about the Haliburton County Fair. There is no doubt that there was considerable apprehension among many people about this year's fair, considering the number of problems that obviously had to be overcome following last year's performance.

Each and every one of the people who worked on this year's fair have very just reason to be extremely proud of the job they have done. It should be extremely gratifying to them to have provided such a well-run spectacle in the face of the negative attitudes. With the renewed credibility of the County Fair that has been established this year, there is no doubt in our minds that next year's fair will set all kinds of new records for participation and attendance.

One of the main reasons for this success story, aside from the hard work put forth by the various individuals involved, is the determination of these people to make this truly a County Fair. This move has certainly met with some resistance and we applaud their determination. We have often said that while the various communities in this county may put on very worthwhile endeavors, if the whole county were to get behind any given event it would really put us on the map. From what we have just seen, and with additional support from throughout the county, this fair is destined to do just that. Let's all make it a date next year.

There is understandably some rivalry between many of the communities in Haliburton, but there are only certain places where that rivalry should be apparent. Camp Kandalor is providing just such a place next Sunday, August 21. Beginning at 1 p.m. they are holding an open house and "Backwoods Pioneer Day" complete with teams competing in woodmanship and canoe races in two 36-foot Montreal freighter canoes.

The Kanawa Canoe Museum, featuring over 300 canoes of various sizes and vintage and the heritage trail buildings will all be open to the public at no charge. A backwoods day is intended to reconstruct some of the friendly competition that was held between neighboring lumber camps, and it has been suggested that possibly teams from Haliburton, Minden, West Guilford and Stanhope may like to work off some of their rivalry in this friendly manner. Anyone planning to put together a team is asked to please contact Mr. Brown in advance at 489-2419. If you are not planning to compete just come out and watch the fun and view what is becoming one of Haliburton's major tourist attractions. Parking space may be at a premium and they do suggest you come early and put as many people in each vehicle as possible.

At our last director's meeting of the Chamber some considerable discussion took place in regard to the future of the Haliburton Tartan. Existing inventory of this Tartan has become very low and it takes about 6 months to obtain new stock. The Tartan must be ordered in a minimum quantity of 3 bolts which represents about a $2,000.00 investment for the Chamber and unfortunately we do not have this type of capital available to tie up. The board decided we would have to have firm commitments from people wishing to purchase Tartan to cover at least 1/3 of our purchase, or one full bolt of material, before we could place an order. We would appreciate hearing from anyone in this regard as to your future requirements and any idea that you may have on how we may ensure a constant supply of this Tartan without creating any financial difficulty for the Chamber.

Auction sales are being arranged this week at opposite ends of the county for two of our older establishments. Kingscote Lodge, on Kingscote Lake, is being liquidated since its owner, Mr. Eli, passed away just over a month ago. Since the lodge lies just within the boundaries of Algonquin Park, it is anticipated that the property will be purchased by the park. South Lake Lodge, near Minden, is also arranging for an auction sale early in September. Following the auction sale this property will be subdivided and sold as individual lots. The Freemans have operated this lodge for quite a number of years and have made many good friends in the Minden area, but now find it uneconomical to operate at its present size and too big an investment to update it to what are considered today's standards.

Elephant Lake Lodge has been sold and the new owners are Bill and Sandy Smith. We sincerely welcome them to our business community and feel confident they will continue to provide the high degree of hospitality that this lodge became known for under the ownership of Bernie Waterton. We understand Bernie is staying in the area and going into real estate and we wish him all the best. We also hear the fish are biting better than ever in Elephant Lake this year.

Looking for entries

in fish draw

"It's a feast or a famine," says Rick Morgan, Executive Director of the Ontario Federation of Anglers and Hunters, speaking about the Federation's Molson Big Fish Contest.

"I can't understand it. In the Rainbow Trout category, where we have 14 entries to date, one man and his wife have caught and entered seven of them. But so far only one musky has been entered and no salmon." As you might expect, Brian Donnelly and his wife Mariella are justifiably proud of their catches and currently hold down several of the winners spots in the Rainbow category. If some big fall Rainbows aren't entered, the Brampton couple stand to have quite a pay day, courtesy of Molson's.

Just a few ideas that your organization might like to think about for a Canada Works project.

These and other ideas may bring new jobs and lasting benefits to your community and Ontario.

And private companies can apply too, with non-profit proposals.

Please remember that your project, whatever it is, should make use of and add to the skills of the unemployed in your area, helping them to re-enter the work force on a full-time basis.

But the deadline is August 26. So let's get working on some good ideas.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1977 by The Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: Last week I returned from caring for my ailing mother for the last five weeks. She has a terminal illness and lives 300 miles from here.

Yesterday a friend of mine called on me and I am still in shock. She begged me to give my husband a divorce! It seems they saw a lot of each other while I was out of town. She said they were "in love," and he claimed I won't give him a divorce. She said my husband said we were "separated" and I had left him!

We've been married for 17 years and there never was any mention of divorce. In fact, I thought we had a good marriage. I am stunned, hurt and dizzy trying to figure this out.

Can you help me?

STILL IN SHOCK

DEAR STILL: What's to figure out? Tell your husband about your visitor, and let HIM explain it to you.

DEAR ABBY: I have a rather delicate problem. My husband comes from a large family, and I get along very well with all of them, but naturally I like some of his sisters and brothers better than others. My question: When I entertain, isn't it O.K. for me to invite, say, a few of my husband's sisters and brothers, and leave out some?

I was called on the carpet by my husband's grandmother who said if I couldn't invite ALL of the brothers and sisters, I shouldn't invite any of them. Abby, that would make 18 people every time. I don't expect to be invited every place MY sisters and brothers are. I'd like to add that I invite the whole tribe occasionally, so it's not like I'm snubbing anyone.

BIG FAMILY

DEAR BIG: I don't know who is calling the signals in your family, but she's out of bounds. If you "invite the whole tribe occasionally," no one should feel offended. Invite whom you wish.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. I am a 66-year-old woman who is engaged to a 69-year-old man. He has been a widower for 11 years. He has asked me to go with him to visit his family. It would be a 900-mile trip by automobile.

My children feel that it would be "proper" for me to go with him if we flew, but "improper" if we drove. I have known this gentleman since childhood and see nothing "improper" about making the trip with him regardless of how we went. Will you kindly advise me, Abby.

UNDECIDED

DEAR UNDECIDED: I see nothing "improper" here, except possibly that which exists in the minds of your children. Go along with your fiancé and have a wonderful time.

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of a person who is constantly correcting others in public about the pronunciation of words and their use? All involved in this situation are adults.

Thank you.

CRITICIZED

DEAR CRITICIZED: The constant corrector is showing his ignorance. It is infinitely more important to be KIND than to be correct.

Bill Smiley Yarns of the past

I'm engaged in writing a few yarns for Airforce, the official magazine of the RCAF Association. Naturally, this has brought back a lot of memories, some a bit grim, some pretty hilarious.

As the old mind's eye wandered back, something hit me like a cold douche. Not that I've ever taken a cold douche.

Why were we so keen to get killed? In this age of dropouts, draft dodgers and deserters, it seems incredible that thousands of young Canadian males, back in the Forties, were almost frantic to get into the air force, into air crew, and into a quadron, where the chances were excellent they'd be dead within a couple of months.

From the point of view of common sense, reason, logic, it was not any brighter than the Children's Crusade of the Middle Ages.

Why? Certainly we had no death wish. We had no deep urge to immolate ourselves in the breath of the war dragon. We weren't even running to the battlements to protect our homes, our wives and children. Most of us were in school, or just recently out, and didn't have none of them there things.

Oh, we knew we had to "Stop that bawstard Hitler!" as Churchill once told us on an airfield in Normandy. We knew rather vaguely that we were defending democracy and unemployment against the monsters of totalitarianism and full employment, although it was a bit puzzling that totalitarian Russia was on our side.

We knew joining up was the thing to do, that most of our friends were doing it, that a fellow looked pretty fine in a uniform, that the girls were impressed and the hitch-hiking easier.

But why the air force? And why air crew, where the dice were loaded so heavily?

Did we avoid the army because we didn't want to be exposed to the rude and licentious soldiery and get all dirty and grimy in action? Or the navy because we preferred a fiery grave to a watery one?

I just don't know, but most of my friends, and most of their friends, chose the air force, and were dead keen on getting into air crew.

Within a bare few years, most of them were a lot less keen, and many were a lot more dead.

As I recall, it was a real downer for those who failed the tough medical test for air crew. Once chosen, you were filled with despair if you were going for pilot and had to settle for bomb-aimer, just because you were a little cross-eyed.

Once in training, it was a shattering experience to be "washed out" of air crew merely because you had badly bent up one of His Majesty's aircraft by trying to land at 40 feet up, or had wound up 300 miles off course on a cross-country training flight. It was devastating if you wanted to be a fighter pilot and were shipped off to lumbering old bombers.

I have friends who still bear a deep scar on the psyche because they were made flying instructors and spent the rest of the war in Canada. This despite the fact they were chosen as instructors because they were far better pilots than the rest of us.

This despite the fact that many of the pilots they trained were dead, dead, in no time. None of this was any consolation. They still feel they missed something irrecoverable.

Well I know what they missed. They missed the stupidity of senior officers who didn't know whether they were punched or bored. They missed long, deadly dull periods of training, and short, intense moments of sheer terror.

They missed being shot at, physically, by perfect strangers, and shot down, verbally, by people on their own side.

They missed the utter blind confusion of the amateurs in charge of the war. Migawd, those idiots lost an entire wing of Typhoons for a full week.

Nobody, least of all Intelligence, had a clue where it was. I air-hitched all over southern England and northern France before I found the blasted thing, all on my own.

Let's see, have I left anything out? Well maybe I have. First I'll take that back about stupid senior officers. There were plenty of those in Canada, too, so you didn't miss that.

Perhaps you missed the joy of climbing out of your aircraft after an operation, lighting a cigarette, and talking a wild blue streak of relief and let-down.

I guess you missed the glory of heading off for a week's leave in a strange country, loaded with lust, a month's pay in your pocket, and the secret sweetness in your head of knowing that nobody would be shooting at you for seven days.

And you did, I must admit, miss the girls. Not all of those fumbling in the blackout were frustrating.

But I still say we were all crazy to volunteer, and even vie to be killed. Must write a paper on that some day.

Report from Queen's Park

BY MPP JOHN EAKINS

The Ontario Government has released an information package on the contamination of fish in Ontario waters. Signs are to be posted at public access points where some species of fish are known to be contaminated. Where there are problems, many species of fish are still safe to eat - some in limited quantities only. However, others should be avoided.

Members of the public are urged to check their catch, to identify species, to measure length of fish, and to check charts for the respective lake or waterway to make sure of the amount of such fish safe for human consumption over a specific period. Anyone fishing, on and off, for more than three weeks during the year, and eating their catch, should consider themselves a long-term consumer, according to charts or information given concerning the waterway.

Children under 15 and women of child-bearing age should eat only those fish designated as totally safe and it should be remembered that a meal is considered equivalent to 230 grams or 8 oz. Fish should not be taken home for freezing and eating, unless it is from the totally safe category.

Information about the waters in which you plan to fish can be obtained from regional and district offices of the Ministries of the Environment and Natural Resources, or by writing to the Ministry of the Environment, Information Services Branch, 135 St. Clair Avenue, West, Toronto, Ontario, M4B 1P5.

Metal mercury is the most widely found toxic pollutant, although man-made materials such as DDT, mirex and polychlorinated biphenyls (PCB) have also been found in fish in dangerous amounts. Apart from industrial pollution, fish can only become contaminated by mercury from natural sources, from concentrations of mercury naturally occurring as mineral deposits in the bedrock.

The Government's information package on this problem points out that since contaminants were first discovered in fish in the 1960's, governments have developed extensive monitoring programmes to detect contamination, and have used their powers to restrict the manufacture or use of the offending substances.

There were six Chlor-alkali plants using mercury in Ontario in 1970. They were ordered to curtail mercury losses. All complied and contamination dropped from several pounds per day to a few ounces. Today, only two plants use mercury and their losses to waterways are extremely low. One of the two plants is to close this year.

Use of mercurial slimicides by pulp and paper mills was stopped in 1970.

In mining, mercury was in widespread use to separate gold and silver from the ore, in the early twentieth century. It is still used in some gold mines, but in a controlled manner. However, some mercury is still being found in disposal areas from gold, silver and copper mines.

Controls have been placed on disposal of sewage sludge from sewage treatment plants, because a mercury build-up can occur if used as a soil conditioner for a long period of time. Small quantities of mercury may be contained in sewage treatment plant effluents and discharged to the watercourse.

Since 1972, the sole North American manufacturer has voluntarily restricted sales of PCB to uses in electrical transformers and other sealed containers. Waste PCB are disposed of by methods which prevent contamination. Current PCB contamination arises from unrestricted handling of the materials during the decades prior to their being recognized as a health hazard.

Mirex was discovered in fish and sediments of Lake Ontario in 1975. The U.S. manufacturer has stopped discharges of mirex into Lake Ontario, although minor contamination may still occur from drainage systems saturated with mirex in the past. No traces of mirex have been found in water, sediments or fish near the two Ontario plants which used mirex until 1970 to make plastic parts and sealants.

Use of the pesticide DDT has been restricted since 1970. Its presence is still detectable in fish in those areas of Ontario where large amounts were applied. The concentration of DDT in the environment has been declining since its use was stopped.

Not all lakes in Ontario are included in the Government's monitoring programme, nor have all species of fish been covered. It is the intention to expand this information in the future by including data from the International Joint Commission Upper Great Lakes Reference Programme, Environment Canada Fisheries and Marine Service inspection programmes, ongoing Ontario monitoring programmes and from other agencies.

Cottagers at meeting

The Lake Miskwabi Cottager's Association made representation to Dysart et al council last week and expressed their concern about water levels among a number of items.

Gerry Strickland, President of the Association told the council that they would like to be part of the municipality's official plan.

Other items include the fact that 50 per cent of the roads in that area have not been brought up to standard as of yet and that there is some need for a swimming area for some of the cottagers.

Voltage reduction is planned for Aug. 23

A planned temporary five percent voltage reduction to Ontario Hydro's electrical system August 23 is not expected to affect most residential, commercial and industrial customers, according to system operation manager Roger Whitehead. The reduction will cover two one-hour periods, from 10:15 to 11:15 a.m. EDT, and 10:15 to 11:15 that same evening. Purpose of the test, usually done twice a year by Ontario Hydro is to pinpoint potential problems before the approaching winter season with its heavy demands.

Mr. Whitehead believes most customers won't notice the reduction, although operations such as radio stations might be slightly affected.

"We just want to see the effect of a voltage reduction on the system at different times of the day under various conditions," he explains. "In case we really should have to do it sometime, we'll know what we're up against."

A two-day postponement to August 25, is planned if bad weather or trouble in the system interferes with the testing.

Report from Ottawa

BY MP BILL SCOTT

Parliament has finally recessed for the Summer, after being delayed through July and into August to deal with a backlog of legislation, and to allow for two days of debate on the proposed routes for an Arctic gas and oil pipeline.

Several weeks of the last session were spent in debate on the controversial gun-control legislation, a debate that actually started more than three years ago. The gun-control bill was passed by Parliament in July, a much revised and amended version of the original bill. The final version is generally acceptable to the parties in the House and to the majority of Canadians, most of whom are now convinced that some form of gun control is inevitable.

Considering the number of bills that the government tabled during the past session, there was not very much in the way of people-oriented legislation that actually came up for debate. Most of the bills passed by the House were what we call 'housekeeping' measures and I would have liked to see more in the way of corrective legislation to deal with such matters as unemployment, inflation, and the widening deficits in Canada's tourism and foreign trade balances.

Another bill that received a lot of attention in the closing days of the session was one that contained a number of measures to tighten up our immigration laws. This bill gives greater authority to immigration officers at border points to make on-the-spot decisions as to whether to allow certain people to enter Canada. In the future, for instance, known trouble-makers and people of uncertain documentation can be turned back at our borders by immigration officers without the need to refer to their superiors in Ottawa.

One bill that passed easily in the House was one that amended the Small Business Loan Act. That bill raised the limit on guaranteed loans for small businesses from $50,000 to $75,000, and also raises the ceiling on annual income to qualify as a small business. A business that earns 1.5 million dollars a year now qualifies as a small business. The previous ceiling was one million dollars.

In my speech on this bill I applauded the new proposals, but I pointed out that most banks do not like to lend money under the Small Business Loan Act because they are required to charge a lower rate of interest on these loans than they could get for conventional loans. Although these loans are guaranteed by the federal government, banks cannot be forced to make the loans. I suggested that there should be a federal fund established that could make direct loans to small businesses at an attractive rate of interest.

Small businesses are the most important single segment of the national economy, employing more than 50 per cent of all people employed in Canada. More than 90 per cent of all businesses in Canada employ 100 people or less, and we should have a more comprehensive policy of support and assistance for small businesses. This would include a reduction in the filling of forms and other paperwork required of small businesses, and a better system of taxing profits and other proceeds.

We passed a government bill that extends the period of insurable employment required to earn entitlement to Unemployment Insurance benefits. Under the old law a person had to work for eight weeks in insurable employment to qualify for UIC benefits. This period has been extended to from ten to fourteen weeks, depending on where you live.

In some regions of high unemployment, and where most jobs are of a seasonal nature, the period is ten weeks. In other areas, of higher employment, and where jobs are of a more stable and lasting nature, the period has been extended to fourteen weeks.

The House was once again called back in to emergency session on Tuesday, August 9th, to deal with the Air Traffic Controllers strike. Following full consideration of the issue, "back to work" legislation was passed in the early hours of the morning. The Bill cleared the Senate at 4:00 a.m. on August 10th in order to get the planes back in the air.

Chatting with Irene

286-1674

There are a lot of tired, and if they are like me, also foot sore, or as one man said, hock sore people today. It is a weariness of satisfaction, for the 113th Haliburton County Fair is a bit of past history now. The weather was excellent, there were people and more people. Sunday there were dogs and more dogs. This is one event that is becoming very popular.

Oh there are a lot of ups and downs, but these are par for the course.

The theft of all the flags was not funny, especially as one had been lent to help the Society honor the Silver Jubilee, and this one held many memories and is not replaceable. It is hoped that the people who did this do not enjoy their loot.

It was nice to see Mr. John Eakins and Mr. & Mrs. Joe Clark visit the food building, and I must say that Mr. Clark's pictures do not do him justice. He has great personality. The look on Mr. Eakin's face when he saw the pencil drawing of himself was priceless and made me wish for a camera.

This week the cleaning up and putting away will be done, also a lot of things talked over, then shortly, a start made for next year. It really is a big circle, but each week will see more winners of events printed as they become available, so keep looking. Congratulations to the hard working Agricultural Society on an excellent Fair.

Did you know that if you use vegetable shortening to grease your cake and cookie pans, there is less chance of the food sticking than if you use butter or margarine.

Pte. Jim Taylor of Forces Base at London, Ontario is visiting with his grandmother, Mrs. Beatrice Taylor.

I met so many people over the weekend that I hadn't seen for a long time that my mind is in a fog but I do remember talking to Mr. & Mrs. Alvin Taylor of Stroud, also to Mr. & Mrs. Keith Taylor of Scarborough. I hope the rest of my friends will forgive me and still speak to me.

This is rather late for this summer but will be good for next year if the nights get hot or if there are any more this year. Fill your hot water bottle with cold water and put in the refrigerator during the daytime. By night it is well chilled but not iced. Put it in the bed and it will really cool the sheets off.

The Womens Institute have their fall bus trip date set for October 5th. I am not quite sure where they are going, but will let you know later.

Mr. & Mrs. W. Welch and son Bruce, of Kapuskasing, have been visiting at the Bill Porter's and the Bud Stamp's.

Mrs. Amy Milligan, and Bernice, of Newtonville, spent the weekend with the Arnold Coulters.

BAKED BEAN SALAD

2 cups baked beans; 1 cup diced celery; 2 tbsp. finely diced onion; 1 tbsp. finely diced red pepper; 2 tbsp. finely diced green pepper; French Dressing; salt. 1. Combine lightly. 2. Taste. 3. Season.

I didn't see the parade on Saturday but I heard a lot of compliments about it and it was nice to know that Lutterworth, Snowden and Stanhope Townships answered the letter sent by the Agricultural Society and had lovely floats. But, where were the rest of the townships? The County of Haliburton float was a real masterpiece also.

It was the past and the present at the heavy horse draw when one watched the heavy machine put the weights on and the horses draw. Seeing such beautiful horses made one wish that there were more horses still around, but maybe there will be if gas gets any higher in price.

Time waits for no one and my time has run out, so Adios and take care now.

Maple Lake News

by Ada Gibbs

We are pleased to have Rev. Gerald Johnson, Mrs. Johnson, Patrick and Kevin with us for their annual August vacation. We understand Michelle will arrive at a later date.

Our community is growing again, as we have two new permanent homes built - one on St. Peter's Road, just off Hwy. 530, belonging to Mr. & Mrs. Clark. The other on Hwy. 530, across from Welch's Store, will be the home of Mr. & Mrs. Dennis Davis.

On Sunday last Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Roushoun, Queensborough, visited with the Clarence Redners then during the week Mrs. Redner had as guests her aunt, Mrs. Walter Matthews and Mrs. D. Whitaker, both of Colborne, Ontario.

Tim Barnes of Wingfields has been home with his parents for a week, but now has returned to Wingfields in order not to miss further holiday activities with his buddies.

Guests of Miss A. Gibbs during the week were Mr. & Mrs. Richard Wilkins of Dunbarton.

Miss Cathy McKeown has been holidaying with her grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Ted Carr. We are always glad to see Cathy.

Belated birthday wishes to all who have had birthdays this month; also best wishes to those who are still looking forward to having a celebration.

Mr. Allan Sisson of Dunsford has paid another visit to relatives in the area, and those who saw and chatted with Allan report his health condition to be greatly improved. He reported that the apple crop was so great in Glenn's orchard that they couldn't begin to use the fruit but the deer were brave enough to enter the orchard and help themselves.

Mrs. Dorothy Finch has had her brother, Mr. Bill Vidler of West Hill, with her for a week. Bill is recuperating after being hospitalized in Scarborough General Hospital. The Haliburton fresh air and sunshine did wonders for him.

We learn of another H.H.S.S. student who has had a busy summer - Lee

Vincent owners rally in Norland

For the past year Jim Payne and Bill Hall, two hard working co-owners of Shadow Lake Cottages, have been busy planning the Vincent Owners Rally.

For those of you who may not know what a Vincent is, it is the name of a motorcycle that was manufactured in England. The last assembly line for these English bikes was in 1955 so as time passes, Owners of the Vincent machines have formed a club and their last Canadian rally was in 1975 at Shadow Lake Cottages.

The Rally, planned this year will be bigger and better than ever with about 400 to 500 people expected. They will be attending from such countries as South Africa, U.S.A., Germany, England, Australia and New Zealand.

As of June 1 there were 150 registered owners in the United Kingdom and 94 in North America. The motorcycles are shipped by air to Vancouver or Malton and the owners ride them from these points to Norland - a long trip in many cases. First arrivals to be registered at Shadow Lake Cottages were Hans tuny and his son, Peter from Germany who checked in August 8.

The Rally is scheduled for August 13 to August 20 but many come early to enjoy the scenery and visit places of interest in the area. Shadow Lake Cottages are headquarters for this enthusiastic group but as their facilities are limited, some of the bikers and their families will be staying at Cedar Nook, Stone Fountain Motel, Shadow-Lee Bay Trailer Park, Little Switzerland Cottages and the Ranch Motel.

Tony Morin, of Toronto, and Brian Phillips, head of the Vincent Club in England, stand with a couple of the bikes at the rally being held near Norland. The rally will continue for the rest of this week.

Working on their motorcycles is one of the many "joys" members of the Vincent Club are getting out of the rally they are having near Norland. The club has 2,000 members throughout the world with most coming from England.

Agricultural events throughout Victoria and Haliburton areas

PETERBOROUGH JUNIOR DAY

On Thursday, August 11th, 250 4-H members from counties surrounding Peterborough participated in the Peterborough Fair Livestock Judging Competition.

Lutterworth will get $27,521 grant

John Eakins, MPP, Victoria-Haliburton, has received word from the Ministry of Housing that Lutterworth Township will receive $27,521.

OHRP provides per capita grants to Ontario municipalities to administer directly as loans to homeowner occupants to repair their houses to an acceptable municipal minimum standard.

The grants announced today represent various portions of the total 1977-78 funding designated under OHRP for each municipality. The prime objective of the program is the correction of faulty structural and sanitary conditions and the upgrading of plumbing, heating, insulation and electrical systems of the owner occupant's home.

"OHRP is directly oriented to low and moderate income homeowners with a maximum annual income of $12,500," Mr. Eakins said. Loans of up to $7,500 can be given to eligible owner occupants to bring their homes up to the standards adopted by their municipality. A portion of the loan can be "forgiven" depending upon the income of the recipient. Interest rates vary from zero to eight per cent, again depending on income.

OHRP extends home renewal possibilities to owner junior division included Dick Noble, R.R. 1, Manilla, Brian VandenBerg, R.R. 2, Oakwood, and Alan Hawman, R.R. 2, Omemece.

In the competition were evaluation classes of beef and dairy cattle, feed, seed and weed identification, as well as ration classes.

Following the competitions all the participants were invited to an awards banquet at the Rockhaven Restaurant, sponsored by the DeLaval Company.

CORN AND SOYBEAN UPDATE SEPTEMBER 1

Farmers, researchers, and agri-businessmen can exchange crop production ideas and information at the Corn and Soybean Update '77 field meeting, September 1, at the Elora Research Station, near Guelph.

"This is the second time the Ontario Agricultural College (OAC) and the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food have sponsored this particular program," says Dr. W.S. Young, co-ordinator of agricultural extension at OAC, University of Guelph.

Three different hour-long wagon tours of corn and soybean field sites are scheduled hourly from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

There will be planned exhibits of tillage and planting equipment. Data comparing production methods and machinery will also be available.

One tour focuses on effects of water, temperature, fertilizer, tillage and compaction on corn production per acre. The second corn tour spotlights the influence of seedbed preparation, planter performance, weed control, hybrid maturation and plant numbers on yields.

STOP ALFALFA WINTERKILL

Harvesting alfalfa during the fall generally causes moderate to severe damage over the winter. In Victoria County, the greatest damage occurs from harvesting at the critical fall harvest date - September 10th.

To help ensure top persistence, alfalfa should not be cut or grazed for three weeks before or after this date - from about August 27th to September 30th. Giving alfalfa a rest during this period will allow the plants to store up food and the stored food acts like an antifreeze making the root and crown resistant to low, freezing temperatures.

A foot or so of fall topgrowth on alfalfa meadows is also good insurance against winterkill. Topgrowth holds the snow and thus keeps the soil warm during periods of cold weather.

AGRICULTURAL EVENTS THIS WEEK

Norland Notebook

By Barbara Maunder

Happy new parents are Gord and Mary Lywood of the Riverside Inn, who have a lovely baby girl, Lisa Marie, born August 8 in Civic Hospital, Peterborough. Justly proud grandparents, for the third time, are Laverne and Jeanette Lywood.

Kathryn Batty, 17, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Jack Batty, R.R. 1, Cobocok, who recently visited Middlesex County as a 4-H Club member exchange student, will have as her guest this week, a student from Middlesex County. The purpose of the exchange is to see how agriculture is practiced in different areas, to meet new 4-H Club members and visit other places in Ontario. Hope it is a fun week 4-H Club members.

While sitting by our kitchen window last week, we were fortunate in viewing a number of Rose Breasted Grosbeaks. The male of this species is so bright with his red band of color near his neck and his black wings with white spots, while the female is quite colorless and streaked like a large sparrow. The birds seemed to be attracted to and enjoyed the insects on the branches of the many Balm of Gilead trees that are in our yard.

Mr. & Mrs. Albert Ferguson, of Head Lake, attended the wedding on August 6, in Orillia, of their eldest granddaughter, Pearl Snider of Sebright, to Sam Brown of Longford Mills. Best wishes to the newlyweds.

With the new type of tax billings by the township, some might forget that the next tax payment is due August 31. A one per cent penalty is added as of September 1. Taxes are high enough without adding extras to them because of penalties so remember to pay your taxes by Wednesday, August 31.

Did you read your green booklet "Report from Ottawa" by Bill Scott, MP Victoria-Haliburton and fill out and mail in the questionnaire at the back of it? Mr. Scott commented re the metric conversion that highway and road signs are being converted from miles to kilometres and municipalities like ours are being told that they must pay the cost of signs on roads that run through their boundaries. He also noted that he believed that if Canadians had been surveyed and asked their opinion re metric conversion, that the majority of Canadians would have preferred miles over kilometres. I have to agree with Mr. Scott when he suggests that the federal government should pay the cost of these changeovers since none of us were consulted as to whether we wanted the road signs changed to metric. An article by Prof. Alan Listiak, in August 12 Toronto Star, has said that the move to kilometres "rammed down our throats by an unresponsive federal government" will add to the confusion of motorists. "The major result will be uncertainty and hesitation on the highways," said Listiak, who has done extensive research on the social aspects of the automobile. "One more confusing element in the environment, such as mentally converting kilometres into miles, does not make for safe driving." He said that he doubts that many motorists have taken the time to study conversion and when the new speed signs are posted, a lot of misunderstanding will develop. Something to think about?

John Ridgway, Reeve of our Townships, was one of a group of people from Victoria County council who spent Wednesday, August 10, in the Oxford County seat of Woodstock, observing the Oxford council in session. The councillors, three county staff officials, and Mayor David Logan will have a better idea after their visit, of how they will vote sometime before the end of the year on restructuring in Victoria County. Oxford County is the first and only county in Ontario to adopt a restructured system similar to the proposed one for Victoria County. Reeve Ridgway thought that the trip was quite worthwhile and informative but restructuring had nothing to offer constructively or positively for our townships except, perhaps, higher taxes. Oxford County's taxes have risen 35 per cent since it has officially adopted the restructured form of government on January 1, 1975. Not very good news for any of us who are concerned with restructured government in the near future.

Ladies Auxiliary Flea Market and Crafts Day on Saturday, August 20, in Norland Community Hall, starting at 10:00 a.m. There will be baking, knitting, collectibles and varied handicrafts for sale. Come and join the fun and bargains.

Rain and dull weather hurts sailors in Kawartha system

The rain and dull weather of the last few days has made for soggy sailing along the system.

However, work is progressing on some of the many structures that make up the Waterway. A canal construction crew is working at Big Bob Dam doing concrete restoration to the structure. It is expected that they will be finished within the next 2 or 3 weeks. Another crew is now working on the Nassau dam. They are doing concrete restoration to this structure as well.

Boaters in the vicinity of Trent River and Campbellford should show caution when travelling in this section. Dredging is taking place in and near the navigation channel and boaters are requested to slow down when near the dredging unit.

The week of August 2 to August 8 was a good one for extending the lifetime of the storage water. Rainfalls supplied sufficient new water to hold the storage level change to a drop of less than one per cent. It now stands at 53.4 per cent which would normally occur about August 20, so we're only about 12 days ahead of normal on the storage decline.

Kawartha Lakes levels have been restored by the rains to near normal navigation maxima so only minimum amounts of reservoir water are being run down to them. The outflow from them remains set at minimum.

MINDEN FAIR

Saturday a large crowd of people were in our village for the County Fair on a beautiful day. The parade was one of the best so far with many floats, groups and horses and must mention the covered wagon drawn by oxen. In this were the officials, MP Bill Scott, MPP John Eakins, Warden Bob Vick and Reeve Reg Booth. The first lady president of this organization Loretta Nesbitt, welcomed the guests and visitors and hoped everyone would have a good time. There was music from the Leahy group and amateurs most of the time. During the afternoon, Joe Clark, leader of the Progressive Conservative party, and his wife Maureen, of Ottawa, arrived and he said a few words. The Heavy Horse Show was excellent and there were a large number of entries in this category. We

THE HALIBURTON COUNTY ECHO AND MINDEN RECORDER

Vol. 95 No. 51

Wednesday, August 17, 1977

A look at The Echo over the past 25 years

BY CREIGHTON FEIR

On this, the occasion of the 95th birthday of the Haliburton County Echo, I thought it would be a good idea if I sat down and gave my impressions of the time that I have been connected with this newspaper.

The Haliburton County Echo, when it started, was known as the Minden Echo and Haliburton Recorder and during those 95 years has had many owners.

No, I have not been connected with this paper for 95 years, but I have been with the paper in various capacities for a total of 26 years.

It all started in 1951 when I and my father, Berkeley Feir, who had been interested in the newspaper game for many years previous to this writing, decided that we would like to own a newspaper of our own. Before this time we ran a pool room, sold confectionery, licenses, and my father ran a barber shop, while I worked at the local post office and at the pool room in my spare time.

In November of 1951 we got together with our good friend Walter Noice, who at that time lived in Haliburton and who now resides in Minden. The three of us decided to go in on a partnership basis and buy the Minden Echo and Haliburton Recorder which was printed in Minden in the building now owned by Floyd Hall Real Estate. The paper at that time was owned and operated by Mrs. Loyola C. Webster who operated the newspaper by herself but who found that printing the paper was too great a task for one person.

We changed the name of the paper to The Haliburton County Echo and printed our first edition on November 8th, 1951 in Minden. In our lead editorial we stated that it would be our aim to promote good will among citizens throughout this area, thus eliminating much of the jealousy and bitterness that exists, retarding the growth of a more progressive and prosperous county.

I will never forget the first issue when our headline read Minden Arena Collapses. Each and every day the three of us would travel from Haliburton to Minden for our days work, but on this particular day it was impossible to drive a car from Haliburton to Minden as the roads were blocked due to a very heavy snowfall the night previous. In an effort to reach Minden we boarded the bus and finally arrived in Minden to learn that the Minden Arena had collapsed due to the heavy weight of the snow on the roof.

We continued to print our newspaper in Minden for the next few years but we found out by experience that our quarters there were too small. We decided to move to Haliburton, to larger quarters selling our pool room equipment and moving into The Echo building which still stands next to the Haliburton Red & White. Our space was so limited in our building in Minden that I can remember trying to set a poster up while sitting on the floor.

When we arrived in Haliburton we invited all of the local businessmen and potential advertisers to an open house so that they could see the first newspapers ever to come off the press in Haliburton.

Later, one of the partners, Walter Noice, who by the way was an excellent writer, decided that he would have to leave the newspaper business on orders from his doctor. It was at this time that my father and I bought Walters share and the two of us took over the business.

The two of us operated the business with the help of my late mother who worked very hard and was in charge of circulation and operating the machine that would label the papers for each week's edition.

In 1971, when my father was deciding to retire, he suffered a stroke and had to leave the business. My mother and I continued to carry on until 1972 when she passed away. This left me in full control with a very heavy workload and some days working for 16 hours without a break. I kept on running the business, printing the Haliburton County Echo and doing job printing. My thanks at this time go to my two valued employees, Larry Thibadeau and Howard Sutherland who worked along with me to carry on the business.

The year previous to my mother's death, I can remember her saying to me if you can find a buyer I think we should sell the business before the long hours kill us all.

It was in November of 1973 that I decided that I couldn't work these long hours anymore and sold the business to John Zylstra who at that time was publishing two other newspapers. In 1975 Mr. Zylstra sold his other interests in his newspapers to a former employee and moved to Haliburton to devote his full energies to The Haliburton County Echo.

During the time that we owned the paper it wasn't all work. We had many laughs on the lighter side of some local issues and jokes among the employees. During this time we printed a lot of events that made us proud and happy and on the other hand it was sometimes very difficult for us to print some of the sad news stories, when personal friends passed away or were killed in car or truck accidents.

If you print a newspaper and write stories the way you see them, it upsets some people. In all of our years in the newspaper game we never meant to hurt anyone but at times in our reporting we did step on some peoples feet. We don't take the credit for the progress that has been made in Haliburton County but we feel a great deal of satisfaction in the fact that many projects that we now have were brought about by our efforts of harping away on certain issues and finally seeing them become a reality.

During the time that we owned the newspaper some of our employees that come to mind were George Wheeler, Cliff Booth, Tony Meissner, Al Rushton, Larry Thibadeau, Howard Sutherland, Bill Scheffee, Bill Roberts.

One of the first changes that were made after Mr. Zylstra bought the paper in 1975 was to change over our method of production and printing from letterpress to offset. This resulted in a much cleaner newspaper with better reproduction of type and photos and allowing for more versatility in advertising makeup. This meant a complete changeover of all of our equipment and The Echo bought modern, computerized typesetting machinery.

In the summer of 1976 we moved from the old Echo office on Highland Street to more modern and spacious quarters in the Bishop Building. Since 1975, when The Echo's paid circulation was approximately 2,400, our staff has tripled and our circulation has hit an all time high this week with 7,000 copies being printed.

This issue not only marks the 95th birthday of The Haliburton County Echo, but is also our largest regular edition in both inches of news and advertising, at 24 pages.

And what do you know, after all of this has happened, I'm still working sixteen hours a day.

Berkeley Feir, his son Creighton and wife Gertrude, along with Walter Noice, brought The Echo's office to Haliburton Village. The Feirs were publishers of The Echo for over 22 years. Creighton is still with the paper in his capacity as General Manager and Advertising Director. This picture was taken at Creighton's wedding in 1956.

Hot off the presses. The Haliburton County Echo was completely printed in the back shop of the old office on a letter press. The type for The Echo and all of the paste up work are still done in Haliburton but the actual printing of today's Echo is done in a modern plant in Bracebridge. Walter Noice, one of the owners of The Echo at that time, is seen looking over the paper as it comes off the press. George Wheeler is shown running the papers while Cliff Booth is shown operating the Heidelberg machine.

Berkeley Feir, long time publisher of The Echo, was seen many times in this position, behind the counter at The ECHO OFFICE. It was the Feirs and Walter Noice who gave the newspaper the name Haliburton County Echo in the early 1950's. Until that time The Echo had been known as The Minden Echo and The Haliburton Recorder.

Many people will remember this scene in the back shop of the old Haliburton County Echo. The Echo was a letter press newspaper up until a few years ago when it went offset. Last year the newspaper moved from these premises to its present location in the Bishop Building below the Bank of Commerce. Walter Noice is shown on the left operating the Liberty press, George Wheeler is busy running the Intertype machine, Berkeley Feir is shown setting type and Cliff Booth is standing at the table tightening the chase in preparation for running off letterheads.

Creighton Feir, General Manager of The Echo, has been part of the operation of the paper for over 25 years. Creighton and his father Berkeley were spent a good deal of time watching the riding horses and there were some grand horses and ponies there.

This year, too, there were sheep, swine, and cattle and exhibits from the 4-H Club and the cattle barn was full and a display of goats as well. For the first time, Ross Warburton, President of Livestock Association, had a showing of his Charolais cattle perhaps more will be in this class next year. The Recreation Centre was busy as people rode over on the train to see the arts and crafts or perhaps visit the beer garden downstairs. The main building was full of exhibits of handwork, baking, fruit, vegetables and flowers and no need to worry about future exhibits as the junior division was sure great.

Sunday there was more entertainment and a large crowd was back again. At that time there was a good dog show, followed by horse drawing.

Both afternoons the Robertson Midway was busy with youngsters enjoying themselves. The Fair Board Barbecue was busy with many having a good beef dinner.

Altogether we thought everyone had a good time and perhaps a visit with someone they hadn't seen for a long time, and the weather was just right. The executive are to be congratulated for organizing and operating a successful Fair.

Gems of Truth

Faith That Sustains the Church:

The word "faith" is used in the New Testament in two ways that are closely related yet different. The one refers to a personal trust in God, while the other has to do with a body of truth that is believed. "Faith is that trust in God of the Scriptures and in Jesus Christ whom He has sent, which receives Him as Saviour and Lord, and impels to loving obedience and good works." (Scofield) "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Hebrews 11:1.

In the New Testament the words "faith" and "believe" are of one meaning being brought into our English language from "one" Greek word which was the original or the language in which the New Testament was written. There is the exception of two places where the word believe is used and where there was no real saving faith or trust and commitment to God. The case of Simon the sorcerer in Acts 8:9-24 is one. His actions and subsequent events proved that he had "neither part nor lot in this matter." V. 21. James tells us that "the devils also believe and tremble." James 2:19. Today, when the word "believe" is used, it means many times, no more than an intellectual assent to a proposition.

The faith or belief that is of any value to us, is found in Scriptures like John 1:12, "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name. The great Apostle Paul declares, "For I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day." 11 Timothy 1:12. The foregoing verses are samples or tests of a personal faith that is of any value to us in sustaining the Church. It is thus that whenever we read in scripture of man being exhorted to "believe" on the Lord Jesus Christ it is this kind of personal faith that is meant.

The second way in which the word "faith" is used in the New Testament refers to a unit or body of truth that is believed and promoted by a group of people. We speak of the Christian faith, the Jewish faith, or perhaps the Mohammedan faith and many others. The Scripture references to the use of the word "faith" with this meaning are not so numerous but very pertinent and suggestive. For instance, Paul in writing to the Ephesians about the unity of the Church, says, "There is one Body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one Hope of your calling; one Lord, one 'faith', one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all." Ephesians 4:4-6. Contrary to present day teaching of some groups the Church of Jesus Christ is not composed of different groups who have different faiths. The faith that sustained the early Church and does so today, is "one".

It is this kind of oneness that Jude reminds us of when he "exhorts" us to "earnestly contend for the 'faith' which was once delivered unto the saints. Jude 1:3. Here the emphasis is laid upon the necessity of keeping inviolate the "body of Truth Divinely revealed and given to us, it is complete in itself and is not to be changed or modified by man. It means that we have the only body of Divine revelation that is available during this Church age. A rejection of this "faith" is a rejection of God. Jude, verse 20 calls it "your most holy faith." It is holy because it came from God and it makes holy the "believer" who receives it. John 17:17.

The Bible in its entirety is the faith that sustains the Church. When any part of the Word of God is rejected, the whole body of truth is affected and is rendered less powerful and useful. A faith that believed in the infallibility of the Word of God is what the early church practised and it is the faith that all evangelical Christians have believed in since that day.

They accept the testimony that the Word of God gives and believe that "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God (the one who believes) may be made perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works. 11 Tim. 3:16-17.

Bitter Lake swim race

Hans Heemsoth of the Scarborough Swimming Club took the top prize in the annual 2 kilometer swimming race at Bitter Lake on Saturday, August 13th.

The two previous years champions were Iris Demend (1976) and Gord Sim (1975) who placed 2nd and 3rd respectively on Saturday.

The race covers a course diagonally across the lake and back to the starting point.

The Word of God

by Brian V. Sullivan

In this article we want to examine the witnesses that were presented by the Gospel Writers. Did anyone see Jesus after He came forth from the dead? Was he seen by very many people? Were they certain that it was the same Jesus who had been crucified? These are some of the areas we want to investigate during this study.

The order of appearances listed below is adapted from: "A Harmony of the Gospel for Historical Study" by Stevens and Burton, all other information is supplied by this writer.

Appearance #1 -- To Mary Magdalene in the garden. (John 20:11; Mark 16:9-11) Mary had come early to the tomb and when she saw that the stone had been rolled away, she went to get Peter. Peter and John returned with her and looked into the tomb.

After seeing the empty tomb they returned to their home. Mary however, remained behind and stayed weeping at the tomb. She talked with the angels and then turned and spoke to an individual she supposed was the gardener. When the supposed gardener spoke her name, she instantly recognized Him and wanted to hold on to Him, desiring that He might continue here. Jesus declared that He had yet to return to His Father. When Mary later related this to the disciples they did not believe her, but doubted her words (see Luke 16:9-11).

Appearance #2 -- To the two disciples who are walking toward Emmaus. (Mark 16:12-13; Luke 24:13-35) Here again, Jesus identity was not at first detected. He walked with these individuals and as they walked, they talked about what had happened at Jerusalem. In answer to the disciples that seemed to prevail in their hearts we find that Jesus expounded unto them "in all the scriptures the things concerning himself" (Luke 24:27). As they sat down for a meal, their eyes were opened and they knew him. He was then gone from their midst.

Appearance #3 -- To the ten disciples (ten because Judas was gone, and Thomas was absent on this occasion) (Mark 16:14) According to Mark's gospel, Jesus upbraided them for their unbelief. They had not accepted the evidence as it was related by other eye witnesses to his resurrection.

We tend to be over-critical of Thomas, but were these any different than he?

Appearance #4 -- To the eleven disciples (this time Thomas is also there). Thomas wanted to have proof that this man was Jesus. To him, being able to see the wounds inflicted by the nails and the spear wound in his side would be sufficient. Yet, when Jesus appeared and offered him opportunity to feel with his hands what his eyes were beholding, Thomas was ready to respond "My Lord and My God". Yes, there was no doubt in his mind.

Appearance #5 -- To seven of the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. (John 21:1-25). This was another of those occasions when they did not recognize him at first. The disciples had fished all night and caught no fish. When Jesus told them to cast the net on the other side of the ship, they knew at once that it was the Lord. Catching their net full of fishes they came to shore and spent time with Jesus. Jesus asks Peter those three questions about his love of the Lord. It seems like this is a repayment for the three times Peter had denied the Lord. An additional question is also dealt with and John's account comes to a close.

Next week, we will continue examining the appearances of the Lord after his resurrection.

ATTENTION: WELL, RIVER AND LAKE WATER USERS...

YOUR DRINKING WATER MAY BE UNSAFE.

The Ontario Government says: "Even without human intervention the water of a lake or stream is unavoidably exposed to contamination at any time. Surface runoff can pick up fertilizer and wash over animal droppings (or carcasses) on its way to the lake, and birds are not dainty in their habits."

"... lake water should not be used for drinking without prior treatment. Even if you test the water and find it free of bacteria, the results tell you only that the sample (you took) ... was pure."

PLAN No. 64-1379

AREA: 1379 sq. ft.
 WIDTH: 48 ft.

Plan Number: 64-1379

A standard design such as the one illustrated is certainly the easiest to build, and is frequently the most practical. It's inexpensive to decorate and furnish, and simplicity of design always results in construction cost savings.

The entrance foyer is separated from the living dining area by a half-wall, which affords an immediate view of the fireplace. Add your own personal touch with spindles, a planter, or close it in completely to suit your taste.

Two space-saving pocket doors can be used to close off the kitchen from the dining living area. The kitchen layout illustrated can be rearranged to suit your needs. Build in a microwave, a dishwasher, or add a garbage compactor at the planning stage, and save having the kitchen disrupted later. This plan features a walk-in food storage cupboard for canned goods, and bulk storage, an added convenience in this neat compact home.

Twin walk through closets with a two piece ensuite create a luxurious master bedroom. The two smaller bedrooms are serviced by a three piece full bath. A large linen closet is also located in the inner hall close to all bedrooms.

The split rear entry leads up to the kitchen, and down to the full basement, a great advantage in winter. This type of entry retains heat, and prevents drafts. In the basement, there's lots of room for an extra bedroom, workshop, an extra bathroom (roughed in plumbing included in the plans), or a storage area. The good size basement windows make a recreational room a natural, centered around the downstairs fireplace.

Functional design, luxury options, and ease of construction make this home of the week perfect for the growing family on a modest budget.

Plan for design No. 64-1379 may be obtained at a cost of $60 for the first set and $9 for each additional set, plus $3.50 for postage and handling. B.C. residents please include 7% sales tax.

Send for the current edition of Select Home Designs Series #33 featuring imaginative decorating and home improvement ideas plus more than 300 quality home plans of every type. Available for $2.25 ($1.75 plus 50 cents postage and handling). To order these items please send cheque or money order payable to the Home of the Week. Address to: Home of the Week, The Haliburton County Echo, 382 West Broadway, Vancouver, B.C. V5Y 1R2.

Galway-Cavendish

The fourteenth regular council meeting was held on Monday, July 25, 1977, at 7:00 p.m. in Cavendish, at the house of Russ More. Present were: Reeve, Brickman, Deputy-Reeve, Chambers, Councillors: MacLellan, Stuart and Nokes. Visitors were: Hugh MacLellan - brief on N.K.P. and Mr. Wilkins - cottage protection.

Roads Committee Report
The committee is meeting on the 29th of July and the report will be presented at the August 15th meeting.

Health & Sanitation Committee Report
On Tuesday, July 19th, Mr. Hugh Allore and one of his staff from the Ministry of Natural Resources visited the Cavendish dump with councillor MacLellan. The following recommendations are to be implemented as soon as possible.

- 1( A fire break be bulldozed again approximately 100 ft. around the dump.
- 2( That all brush below the dump be piled and burnt under supervision.
- 3( The remaining trees fronting the 100 ft. fire break remain as a green belt.
- 4( While viewing the dump a large fire was burning in the brush dump site area and a small undergrowth fire started at the edge of the green belt. This had to be extinguished by the men of N & R and attended to afterwards by two Cavendish fire wardens.

The sanitary condition of our township dump sites have improved since the signs, fencing and the sending of letters to the taxpayers, with the exception of Galway dump.

This site remains very unsatisfactory and the committee strongly recommend that action be taken immediately to resolve same.

77-347 Moved by Nokes, seconded by Chambers that the minutes of July 11, 1977 meeting with amendment to resolution #77-341 showing this motion as seconded by Nokes (Jean MacLellan did not second it), be adopted as circulated. Carried.

Mr. John Wilkins and his superior attended the council meeting to present a description of their company's operation and service offered for the protection of cottage owners. He described how they would set up an office in the Nogies Creek area and that it would be in operation seven days a week for six months. Council was also informed that anyone taking out a contract with them would have their cottage inspected once a week and if any irregularities occurred, e.g. break-ins or damages, they would be reported immediately. Council informed Mr. Wilkins that they would take his proposed operation under advisement. They are suggesting that Mr. Wilkins contact all Ratepayer Groups directly and advise them of the proposed service.

The council thanked Mr. MacLellan and the people attending, for their time and effort in preparing their brief and assured them that their brief would be taken into consideration before the Zoning Bylaws are finalized.

Early elections for Municipalities

A resolution being circulated among a number of

One increase in 12 months

Tenants and Landlords should be aware that only one rent increase is permitted in any 12-month period, consumer and commercial relations minister Sidney Handelman said today in a statement aimed at clearing up any confusion that still exists over changes in the rent review legislation.

Even if the rent increase is under the eight per cent guideline it must stay in effect for a year the minister said.

"Landlords wishing to increase rents by more than eight per cent must continue to apply to rent review for permission to do so," Mr. Handelman said. "This figure will remain in effect until Oct. 14, 1977."

Written reasons justifying a rent increase must accompany the 90-day notice of increase which the landlord must give under The Landlord and Tenant Act.

A tenant or landlord now has 21 days instead of 15 in which to file an appeal against a rent review officer's decision. The other party to the appeal must be notified within seven days after the notice has been filed.

The minister urged landlords or tenants who have questions about their rights and protections under the Act to contact the nearest regional rent review office.

municipalities just may be a start in getting the municipal election date changed from the first Monday in December every two years to the third Monday in November every two years.

Dysart et al council agreed with the change.

It was pointed out that it wouldn't be much of a problem because the November business would be done at the time.

It would mean that nominations would be held the first week in November.

Ministry not into bacterial testing

It doesn't sound likely that the Ministry of Environment will be involved in any bacterial testing in Haliburton area lakes in the near future.

In a letter from the Ministry, to Dysart et al council, it was pointed out that the Ministry was not involved in the testing the last time it was done. It noted that the testing was conducted by the Kawartha, Pine Ridge and Haliburton Health Council and the Haliburton Highlands Property Owners Council.

Reeve, Murray Fearrey, suggested that it is perhaps a matter of funding that the program was dropped.

NOTICE FIRE PROTECTION MINDEN FIRE DEPARTMENT

The Minden Fire Department has recently experienced difficulty responding to fires which were located in areas serviced by private roads. The main problems would appear to be caused by narrow roads and also overhanging trees and brush.

The Municipal Council requests that all private roads or driveways be brushed to a minimum of twelve (12) feet in width and height to ensure efficient fire department response.

This measure is introduced to help protect your property and your co-operation will be appreciated.
